Bible Lesson

THE LORD IS WITH JOSEPH IN EGYPT GENESIS 39:1-41:57

Joseph was sold to a man named Potiphar. He was in charge of Pharaoh's guards. Potiphar saw that Joseph was honest and a hard worker. Soon, Potiphar put Joseph in charge of his house, all his servants and all his land. But Potiphar's wife lied about Joseph to Potiphar. Potiphar believed his wife. He put Joseph into jail.

Joseph didn't deserve to be in jail. While Joseph was in jail, the jailer gave him work. He did a very good job. Soon the jailer gave Joseph more important jobs. Joseph did his best! Finally, the jailer put him in charge of the prisoners.

One night, the king of Egypt, called Pharaoh, had a strange dream and couldn't understand what it meant. He told his helpers about the dream, but they didn't know what it meant either. One of the king's helpers remembered when he had a dream and Joseph understood what it meant. He said, "Joseph might be able to tell you what your dream means." "Then bring him to me," said the king. When Joseph got there, the king said, "I had a dream but I don't know what it means. I've heard that you can tell what a dream means."

"I can't," Joseph said, "but God can. He will help me understand your dream." So the king told Joseph that he dreamed about seven fat cows that were eaten up by seven skinny cows. But the skinny cows stayed skinny.

Joseph said, "God is telling you something very important. The seven fat cows are for the seven years we will grow lots of grain. The skinny cows are for the seven years after that, no grain will grow at all!" Joseph said, "We need to save our extra grain in barns. During the seven years when no grain grows, the people can use the grain we saved up."

The pharaoh said, "You are wise, Joseph, because you listen to God. Since God has helped you, I'm going to put you in charge of saving grain for all the people."

For the next seven years, Joseph traveled all across the land and said, "Make barns and save the grain for seven years." Every year, the barns got bigger and bigger. During the seven years of famine, the people started getting hungry. Then Joseph opened the barns and sold grain to them. God helped Joseph make sure all the people had enough to eat. God knows everything, and He helped Joseph.
