EZRA READ THE LAW EZRA 7-10

The people finished rebuilding the walls and the city gates in just 52 days. Ezra, a priest, had traveled from Babylon to Jerusalem. God was with Ezra, and Ezra wanted to study God's law, obey it, and teach it to God's people.

Ezra learned that some of the people and their leaders had disobeyed God, ignoring His Word. Ezra tore his clothes and pulled out some of his hair. Ezra got on his knees and prayed to God, confessing the people's sin. Several years later, the people in Jerusalem gathered together early in the morning at one of Jerusalem's gates. Men, women, and children came to listen to the reading of God's Word.

As the sun was just coming up, Ezra brought out the book of the law of Moses. God's words were written on a scroll. Ezra stood on a high wooden platform and began to read.

Ezra read the law for hours, and all the people listened carefully. "Amen! Amen!" they said. The Levites explained the law to the people and helped them understand the words Ezra read. The people in the crowd bowed down with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped God. As the people heard the words of the law, they began to cry.

Ezra said to them, "Go home and prepare a feast! Eat rich food and drink sweet drinks. "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad or cry." Even though the people's sin made them sad, this was a happy day. The people obeyed Ezra. They prepared a feast. They were glad because they understood the words of the law that were explained to them.
