THE PROMISED LAND AND JERICO JOSHUA 2-4:6,6

The Israelites finally arrived at the promised land. Joshua sent two spies into the city of Jericho to see what it was like.

Rahab had heard about God and believed in Him. She wanted to help His people. When the king of Jericho was looking for the spies, she hid the men on her roof.

Rahab said, "Please remember us and be kind to my family just how I have been kind to you. When you attack Jericho, please don't kill us." So the spies promised to keep Rahab and her family safe when they came to attack Jericho. Rahab tied a bright red rope in her window so the Israelites would know where she lived.

Joshua commanded the people to march around the city one time. Not not one of the Israelites spoke or made a sound. They did this every day for six days.

Finally On the seventh day, the Israelites got up early and marched around the city seven times. On the seventh time when the priests blew their trumpets, and the people shouted, and the wall fell down!

The Israelites remembered Rahab and the promise they made with her and kept her and her family safe.
