THE APOSTLES WERE ARRESTED ACTS 5

The apostles were performing many miracles in Jesus' name among the people at the temple, and more and more people believed in the Lord. Crowds of people came to them, bringing those who were sick or suffering. All of them were healed.

The high priest and other religious leaders were very jealous, so they arrested Jesus' apostles and put them in jail. But that night, an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail and brought out the apostles. The angel told them, "Go and tell the people about Jesus"

So the next morning, the apostles went into the temple and began to teach. That next day, the high priest and other religious leaders ordered their servants to bring the apostles to them. But when they went inside, the apostles weren't there. The religious leaders brought the apostles before them and said, "Didn't we tell you to stop teaching about Jesus?"

Peter responded, "We must obey God rather than people. Jesus is our Ruler and Savior. He came to change people's hearts and forgive their sins."

The Jewish leaders were angry and they beat them and told them to stop talking about Jesus. Then they let them go free. The apostles left, praising God. Every day, in the temple and in people's homes, the apostles continued to preach about Jesus.
