Bible Lesson

NARROW DOOR (JESUS KNEW HE WOULD BE REJECTED) LUKE 13

As Jesus traveled toward Jerusalem, he stopped in towns and villages to teach people. In one of those places, someone asked Jesus, "Lord, are only a few people going to be saved?"

Jesus said, "The path to heaven is like a narrow door. If a door is narrow it means it's not easy to pass through. Many people will try to get into heaven, but not many people will."

Jesus explained that some people will think they will enter God's kingdom because they knew who Jesus was. But being a good people and simply knowing about Jesus doesn't make you go to heaven. Even though you know who Jesus is, Jesus can say to you, "I don't know you." We can be saved only by repenting and believing that Jesus is our Lord and Savior who rescued us from our sins.

Jesus' teaching was hard for some people to hear. They didn't like what Jesus was saying. Some religious leaders came to Jesus and said, "You need to leave. King Herod wants to kill You." Jesus was sad because of the sins of the city of Jerusalem.
